Health Director Repeats Warning to Test Water of Flooded Wells

Dr. L. L. Fatherree, Will county health officer, today repeated the warning that all persons in flooded areas who are using water from a private well, should have their water supplies tested for safety if they have not already done so.

Dr. Fatherree pointed out that under no conditions should people drink water from a well that has been flooded until the water has been tested and found safe to drink.

Any well, that has been submerged under flood water should be considered contaminated until proven safe.

Many persons have already visited the health department and have obtained chlorination instructions and sample bottles for testing their water supplies. Until questionable wells have been chlorinated and the water tested and found safe, all water for drinking purposes should be boiled for at least five minutes.

Persons may obtain water sample bottles and instructions for chlorinating wells and water distribution systems at the Will County Health Department, 21 E. Van Buren st., Joliet. Water samples will be tested free of charge. Only water samples in approved sample bottles obtained from the health department will be accepted by the laboratory for testing.

Man Killed In Leap or Fall From R. I. Train

An unidentified man, believed to be about 50 years old, was killed early yesterday afternoon when he jumped or fell from the rear of an east bound suburban Rock Island train about a mile west of the Tinley Park station, opposite the water tank on the state hospital grounds.

The man apparently struck one of the rails head first and as a result it was impossible to get any description of his features. The train was traveling about 55 miles an hour at the time, it was said.

The victim had no wallet nor any identification upon his person, according to Tinley Park Police Officer Peter Seelev. One of his pockets yielded a railroad ticket that he had purchased at Joliet. The destination was Midlothian.

The man was wearing a straw hat, slacks and a white shirt.

The body was removed to the Cook county morgue.

The Mokena village board is hopeful that it will be in a position to let contracts for the proposed sewer system and sewage disposal plant before the end of August.

To do this, it was pointed out by a board spokesman, the village must sell $100,000 of general obligation bonds and sufficient water and sewer revenue bonds to meet the cost of the project.

As action is time now the board expects to advertise for bids on the project by Aug. 1, and open same three weeks later. At that time the board should know exactly how much the project will cost.

In order to sell the revenue bonds, however, the board must have the formal applications of at least 350 prospective users of the system. Such applications were mailed out last week.

According to Village Attorney Raymond Hoolehan the response has been fair but points out that time is the essence and this week a reminder has been sent out signed by Mayor James Marti, asking the

Says Proposed Rates Will Raise Average Power Bill Less Than 50c

Details of the proposed rate increase announced by Commonwealth Edison Co. early this month were made public today when the utility filed new rate schedules with the Illinois commerce commission.

The revised schedules provide for increases averaging approximately 7 1/2 per cent and aggregating about $2,100,000 a month. Federal income taxes and other taxes would reduce the net gain to the company to something more than $900,000 a month.

The new rates affect substantially all classes of customers of both Edison and its Public Service Co. division. Edison serves the city of Chicago and Public Service some 320 communities in Northern Illinois.

Increases for residential customers served by the system will average less than 50 cents a month, it was stated. The effective date of the new rates will depend on action by the commission.

Willis Gale, Edison chairman, stated. The effective date of the new rates will depend on action by the commission.

Willis Gale, Edison chairman, stated that higher money costs and rising prices forced the utility to file the revised rate schedules.

Cites Needs

"Commonwealth Edison, in its 70-year history, has had only one general rate increase—6 1/2 per cent in 1954," Mr. Gale said. "In the Public Service area rates were increased also during the inflationary period of 1918-20. On the other hand, there have been 26 rate reductions in Chicago and 37 rate reductions in the Public Service area."

"The increase we now ask is directly related to our obligation to provide the tremendous expansion of electric facilities needed to keep pace with the growth of the Chicago area. It is also directly related to the marked rise in interest rates which substantially increases the cost of financing this program. These costs plus

L-W Band Plans Three Concerts - First Tonight

The Lincoln-Way high school band will play the first of a series of weekly concerts tonight on the lawn in front of the school. There are to be three of these concerts, the next two being the nights of Aug. 1 and Aug. 8. The programs will begin at 8 o'clock.

According to Robert Taylor, head of the music department at Lincoln-Way and director of the band, approximately 40 boys and girls will play at tonight's concert. The band has been rehearsing regularly since school was dismissed for the summer and when the new school year opens in September Mr. Taylor expects to have 72 members in the band. The number is cut now because of vacation plans.

At tonight's concert and the next two, the band will play a variety program.

The band played several concerts on the school lawn last summer and they were quite popular.

There will be no charge for the concert but the Band Parents will sell refreshments, ice cream, cake and the like.

In a year and a half, total consumer expenditures in this country have increased at an annual rate of $17,200,000,000. However, according to the First National City Bank of New York, "fully half of this was an illusory expansion caused by rising prices."

Construction At L-W High Slowed By Rainy Weather

Considerable delay in the new high school addition has been experienced during the past four weeks. The heavy rains were chiefly responsible for extra work and loss of time. The Board of Education had planned to have the classrooms ready for occupancy at the opening of school in September. On account of these delays, the completion date will probably be about November 1 for the classrooms and about January 1 for the auditorium. The minor alterations in the science department should be completed by the opening of school.

These delays will cause some inconveniences early next fall, but emergency arrangements are being planned to accommodate the additional students. Temporary classrooms will be set up in the cafeteria, study hall, and in certain parts of the shop areas.

When the auditorium is completed, it will have a seating capacity of 654 and will be used for all small group gatherings and programs. The gymnasium will still be used for the activities requiring a much larger seating capacity. The stage of the auditorium is of good size and will be used extensively by the various music, speech, dramatics, girls' athletics, and wrestling organizations.

This additional building space will only provide for the immediate needs. It will be necessary to continue increasing the size of the building facilities in proportion as the enrollment increases.

Report "Doughnut Day" Collections at Mokena, Frankfort

In Mokena, Mrs. Jacob Barenz, chairman of the drive, reports having collected $72 and at Frankfort, Mrs. Robert Burns, chairman, reports $59.92.

The total contributions of the June 14 tag day, according to Mrs. Henry D. Paschen, general chairman, and Mrs. Howard A. Olson, Elmwood Park, amounted to $157,506.21.

This amount will help to defray the expenses of the Army's activities such as, emergency lodging and food, summer vacation camp for goldenagers and underprivileged mothers and children, extensive rehabilitation work with derelict men, care of unmarried mothers and their babies, a day nursery, family casework service, a hospital for patients with long-term illnesses, emergency canteen service at major fires and disasters and medical and dental clinics. All services are extended throughout the year without reference to color or religion.

In all communities outside of Cook county, 20 per cent of the funds collected will remain in the communities to meet local emergencies.

Not long ago at a social gathering, the topic of conversation centered on insurance. Mrs. Bortner said, "Insurance is like a hospital. People don't want to go to a hospital, but when they do, they want the best. We in this community are very fortunate in having St. Francis hospital. They don't come any better. Likewise, insurance is necessary, but everyone hopes they won't have to use it. But when you need it, only the best will do."

Mr. Lonton said, "I like to find out the facts on a policy before a loss. It would be disheartening and embarrassing to report a loss and then find the policy didn't cover it. I insist that my agent, Bill's firm, explain what isn't covered, as well as what is. My idea of good insurance is the kind you fully understand."

"In effect," interspersed Mr. Numbers, "you're saying that a qualified local agent is what makes insurance good."

"Exactly," Mr. Lonton replied with a smile.

As with a hospital, you may occasionally need insurance. When you do, the best is none too good. And the "good" insurance is available locally through qualified agents.

Mason Introduces Amendment to Bolster Aims of Bricker Measure

(Congressional Record, June 19, 1957)
Mr. Mason:

Mr. Speaker, today I have introduced a new 'Bricker Amendment', one that is as strong as the original Bricker Amendment although it presents an entirely different approach to the problem of Executive Agreements. The original Bricker Amendment has been watered down so much to meet the objections of the President and the State Department that even if passed it would not prove an effective check upon the Executive. The present Bricker Amendment is a very poor substitute, in my opinion, for the original amendment submitted by Senator Bricker.

In its original form the Bricker Amendment stated, in effect that all future Executive Agreements must be ratified by the Senate, the same as treaties, before having the full force and effect of law. The argument in support of the Bricker Amendment is that if Executive Agreements are to have the force of law, if they are to supersede and take precedence over both Federal law and State law, then they should be ratified by the Senate, as treaties are required to be ratified, before going into effect.

Mr. Speaker, the Constitution gives the President the power to make treaties with foreign countries "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur. Treaties when made become the supreme law of the land, superseding and taking precedence over all Federal laws and State laws.

President Roosevelt by-passed the treaty-making provision of the Constitution, and both President Truman and President Eisenhower followed his example. President Roosevelt substituted Executive Agreements for treaties, claiming they had all the effect of treaties; were as binding as treaties; but they did not require Senate ratification. The Executive Agreements made at Cairo, Teheran, Yalta, and Potsdam are examples. More recently the Geneva Agreement and the Bermuda Agreement are examples.

The results of these Executive Agreements are well known. They have been very disappointing, to say the least. There is not an informed person in the world today—outside the Iron Curtain—who would assert that those Executive Agreements were either well-considered or successful. The results of those agreements are the best evidence that they were ill-advised. Certainly the results demonstrate the need that all future Executive Agreements should receive the consideration and approval of the Congress before they become operative and binding upon the Nation.

Mr. Speaker, the amendment that I am introducing today simply states:

(a) "No treaty shall have greater effect within the United States than if it were a law of the United States; and

(b) "Any international agreement other than a treaty shall have effect within the United States only to the extent provided by a law of the United States."

My amendment, therefore, would require all Executive Agreements hereafter entered into by the President to be implemented by a law passed by the Congress before going into

we are to preserve the three branches of Government separate and independent; if we are to protect the future of our children—then we should insist that all future Executive Agreements must be ratified by the Congress.

THANK YOU, FOLKS!

We appreciate very much your cooperation and patience during the recent emergency situation. The record rainfall flooded approximately 20,000 of our customers' homes to such an extent that it disrupted the use of gas appliances.

The emergency covered an area in which more than half of our 580,000 customers live, and this placed a terrific strain on our normal ability to answer your calls for service promptly.

We are proud of the way in which our servicemen responded to this emergency. Many left their own flooded homes to work long and late in order to restore your gas service. Behind the scenes were hundreds of other Northern Illinois Gas employees who also played important roles during this trying period.

Again, may we say "thank you, folks!"

TINLEY PARK, ILL.

Park Forest May Carry Marshall Field Tax Suit to Supreme Court

(CNS) The village of Park Forest will soon decide whether to appeal to the Illinois supreme court ruling denying the 1955 assessment of the Marshall Field store in the village shopping center.

Bernard G. Cunningham, 279 Rich Road, Park Forest, a member of the board of trustees of the village, brought the "taxpayers suit" asking County Assessor Frank Keenan be forced to assess the Marshall Field building and not just the land.

When Keenan assessed the shopping center on April 1, 1955, he should have assessed the Marshall Field structure also, instead of just the property it stands on at 333 Plaza, the suit said.

Cunningham maintains the building was 91 per cent completed and had a fair cash value of "approximately $1,000,000."

Francis X. Riley, assistant states attorney said the shopping center was assessed at $1,365,269, and "equalized" by the Department of Revenue at $1,911,377. Therefore, the shopping center was taxed $80,774.80, which was collected.

Conflict on Date

Attorney Wallace Wyatt, representing the village, said Marshall Fields was open for business on March 28, 1955, and was almost completed by April 1, 1955.

Riley said Marshall Field occupied only portion of the building on March 23, and on April 1, when it was assessed. He said, "an investigation made on the ground showed conclusively that the building was 42.5 per cent completed on that date."

He presented a letter to the court that Edward M. Sieja, chief deputy assessor had written to Wyatt, wherein Sieja said, "while Marshall Field opened their store a few days before legal assessment date, our information indicates that such opening was actually premature and was a business maneuver to forfend a competitive action in the vicinity of their enterprise. The physical structure was far from completed at the time of their opening."

"Our computation indicates that 57.5 per cent of the building was not completed as of April 1, 1955, and thus the building was not assessed for that year in keeping with our rules and regulations with reference to structures in an incomplete state."

Riley explained that structures less than 50 per cent completed are not assessed. Those between 50 and 90 per cent completion are assessed at 90 per cent of their value, he said. Buildings between 91 per cent and 100 per cent completion are assessed at the full value, he added.

Sieja also said, "reports by deputies of this office show that the entire second floor was unfinished, and the entire south section of the building was unfinished, in addition to many necessary appurtenances which were not in place in the area occupied by Fields."

Wyatt dismissed the letter by adding, "Does it sound reasonable that a department store would open for business before the structure is completed?"

Riley asked the suit be dismissed as the judge would only have jurisdiction of the matter if there had been fraud. He maintained that the court does not have the power to force the assessor to assess any property. Superior Judge Donald S. McKinlay denied Cunningham's request.

Wyatt said he will ask the village board of trustees for approval of his plans to appeal the denial to the Illinois supreme court.

Wyatt said American Community Builders, owners of the 59 acre shopping center, would have had to pay $40,000 in taxes for the Marshall Field building if the court request had been granted. "If they had been forced to pay taxes on the building for 1955", Wyatt added, "the nearly 10,000 families in Park Forest would have all shared a slight decrease in taxes. What the builders should have paid was paid by the people."

Alsip Elects Alsterda Mayor, Court Decides

A court recount has confirmed the re-election of John J. Alsterda as village president of Alsip.

Superior Judge John J. Lupe said the correct count was 526 votes for Alsterda and 519 for Vincent R. Ewald, unsuccessful opponent in the village election April 16.

The ruling brought an end to three suits challenging the election of Alsterda and two successful running mates on the Peoples Party ticket—Police Magistrate Tom Robinson and Village Clerk Raymond Termude.

Under agreement entered into before the recount in Ewald's suit, his running mates promised to withdraw their suits for recounts in view of Alsterda's victory.

They are Arthur J. DeRuntz, defeated for village clerk, and Thomas Mackey, an also-ran for police magistrate.

"Pleased"—Alsterda

"I am pleased to win," Alsterda said. "But I am more pleased that the good people who served as judges and clerks of the election have been vindicated."

"The charges made that the vote was not properly counted are now proven false. I promise to continue to give Alsip the same sound, economical administration we have enjoyed for the past many years."

The official village canvass reported 525 votes for Alsterda and 518 for Ewald.

The recount was made by Ignatz Spitz, an attorney appointed as special commissioner by the court.

Alsterda was represented by Attorneys John F. Tyrrell and Joseph Brunswick.

Tree Farming Has Big Part In Paper Industry

To help meet the nation's future needs for wood and wood-derived products, industries engaged in the manufacture of paper, pulp and paperboard are carrying on some of the most intensive and effective forest management in the country, according to the 1957 edition of "Facts About the Pulp, Paper and Paperboard Industry," just off the press.

Published by American Forest Products Industries, which sponsors the 16-year-old American Tree Farm program of growing timber as a crop on taxpaying lands, the books says pulp, paper and paperboard companies employ about 1,000 technically trained foresters and give assistance and advice to small woodlot owners in the management of farm woodlots.

"Forestry—the business of growing continuous tree crops—has become an accepted part of the processes of the industry," says the booklet, "just as much as the operation of paper machines."

Besides furnishing a market for the nation's growing roster of tree farmers, the pulp, paper and paperboard companies provide full-time jobs for 548,100 workers whose salaries and wages total nearly $2-billion annually, the booklet says.

On the basis of latest available statistics, there are 804 mills making paper or paperboard and 330 mills manufacturing pulp. These mills, scattered thru 42 states, represent a property investment of $7,800,000,000. Thousands of converter mills add to the economic stature of the 267-year-old industry, which the booklet says is the second fastest growing manufacturing industry in the country.

Per capita consumption of paper and paperboard in the U. S. has risen to 421 pounds, more than 150 times the figure for any Asiatic and Near East countries, the booklet says.

Publisher of Weekly Paper Gives Sad News on Federal Tax Bite

What does high federal taxation—and reckless spending in Washington—mean to the publisher of an average weekly newspaper?

Guy T. Ludi, of The Wahoo Newspaper (combining The Democrat and The Wasp) in Wahoo, Nebraska, recently reported:

"We paid to the Federal Government an average of $6.53 per hour for every hour our plant was in operation last year. This figure is equal to the salaries of three skilled workmen for an entire year . . . three skilled workmen that never showed up for work.

"The Federal taxes we paid could be compared to another unusual equal . . . It cost Ludi Printing Company $52.00 every workday morning to unlock the front door. But, if this sounds ridiculous to you, just follow along on these further comparisons:

"The amount of Federal Government taxes taken out of this plant last year was equal to two and a quarter full page ads each week . . . or 9c out of every dollar taken in (whether or not a profit was made), or "Over $260 in cash every week.

"These taxes took enough money out of our plant to pay for any one of the following:

"Heat, for 22 years.
"Postage for nine years.
"Electric lights for 32 years.
"Water for 103 years.
"Electric power for nine years.
"Electric heat for typesetting machines for 22 years.
"Telephone for 21 years.
"Freight costs for 12 years.
"Insurance for 15 years. . . .
"You may ask . . . 'Well, what are we going to do about it?'

The answer is: We don't know. We know that spending by the Government is too high . . . that taxes are too high and going higher . . . we'll do our share of the squawking, but one voice is hardly an uproar.

"Actually, we would propose that tax-conscious people everywhere seriously consider the problem before the next primary election in 1958. At that time something can be done if everyone will crack down on the spenders in Washington."

Flooded Furnaces Need Check, Says Gas Co.

Flooded home owners who have had their doused gas service restored should have their furnaces checked, too, says the Northern Illinois Gas company.

"Some furnaces will need to have work done," a gas company spokesman said.

"Customers are reminded that space heating equipment which was under water should not be relighted until motors and controls have been checked by the customer's own heating serviceman."

The spokesman suggested this be done soon as possible so furnaces will be in tip-top condition before cold weather arrives."

See Own Servicemen

Furnaces not dried out properly will burn out, he said.

Checking furnaces is not part of the company's general service, thus the spokesman's advice to see your own servicemen.

However, the company did answer upwards of 20,000 calls to restore gas service to appliances and customers' homes since the record heavy rains of July 12-13.

About 8,700 calls were received from west suburban homes, 5,200 from the north and northwest suburban areas, the balance from the south.

Joliet had 2,000. About 2,700 came from the Chicago Heights, Harvey, and Blue Island areas.

Service was back to normal by Friday, the spokesman said.

Mokena Troop 40

Troop 40 of Mokena returned July 13 from an eventful week at the Boy Scout reservation near Morris. They enjoyed good weather and a week of fun up to the last night.

Boating, swimming, archery, riflery and scouting along with food was the program of the day. Family night and the Order of Arrow calling out ceremony were combined, this year, and it worked out quite well. Mark Muehler was called out by

Those attending from Troop 40 were Robert Munch, Senior Patrol leader; Ken Lorenz, Dan Williams, Patrol leader, Ray Lorenz, Mark Muehler, Eric Jacobson, Todd Bennett, Ron Badton, Paul Machalik, Bill Sluis, John Selnik, Wayne Swenberg, Ken DeCamp, Dennis Heim, Jim Davies, Rich and Mike Mansfield.

The last night, Friday was quite damp at times, but all the boys slept well. When they awoke they were surprised the lake had gone down instead of up, even though it rained most of the night. The dam was opened some to lower the lake level before the crest came in. Most of the retaining embankment is only dirt and any amount of water flowing over the top of it would quickly eat it away.

Judge Rules Newspaper Story Is Not Evidence

(CNS)—Charges of gaming brought against John Duda, bartender at the Dirty Dalton club, 20 155th place, Calumet City, have been discharged because a search warrant was issued on the basis of a newspaper report that a federal gambling stamp had been issued to the tavern.

Judge Harry Lambert, sitting in Homewood court, dismissed the charges when testimony disclosed two judges had signed the search warrant when they read in the paper that a gambling stamp had been issued to the tavern. Judge Lambert said Sheriff's police raided the tavern and found one 5c, one 10c and one 25c slot machine in the establishment.

Had Luck - But Bad

"They should have sent a man in to investigate whether machines were actually on the premises," the judge said. "If they could raid a tavern on the basis of an article in the paper, they could raid your home."

Altho slot machines are illegal in Illinois, the judge said, the government will issue gambling stamps. He recalled one instance where a government agent sold a gambling stamp to a tavern manager, then wished him good luck. He didn't have good luck though, the judge recalled, "he lost his machines."

Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman, in a letter to Calumet City Mayor Stanley Bejger, requested the license be revoked because of the three confiscated slot machines.

Toll Road Contractors Building Lakes Getting Fill for Grades

(CNS)—Cook county now is district. in a multi-million dollar era of man-made lakes. Carving out 15 lakes—five in forest preserve areas—is underway mostly in rural areas by toll road contractors, a survey by Community News Service shows. The earth obtained by these excavators is being used for fill in building up highway grades. In addition, DesPlaines has passed an ordinance to gain one the same way. Park Ridge, too, is allowing a lake to be created this way, reports Andrew Plummer, assistant county highway superintendent. The county has issued 10 such permits to date after adopting rigid specifications drawn up by Charles Sauer, general superintendent of the forest preserve

All new lake sites in rural areas are on private land whose value will skyrocket when home developments there get underway. Good Deal for County The county will get the forest preserve lakes free and also about $250,000 from the toll-road contractors. If the county had to do the job, Sauer estimates the cost for its five lakes at $3 million. A conservative statement from Daniel Ryan, county board president: "This looks like a good deal for the county." Here are the forest preserve lake sites, expected to be stocked with fish and ready for recreational purposes within two years:

1. Maine township: 35 acres on the south side of Golf road and east of the DesPlaines river.
2. Maine township: 16½ acres south of Touhy avenue and west of the DesPlaines river.
3. Thornton township: 35 acres at Indiana state line and Brainard avenue in Burham.
4. Hyde Park township: 20 acres at 130th street and Calumet expressway in Chicago.
5. Maine township: 35 acres at Central and East River road.

Issue Permits
Permits issued by the county building department will create five lake sites in Elk Grove township, two in Northfield township, two in Hanover township, and one in Barrington township. To obtain a county permit, here's what an applicant must do and prove:

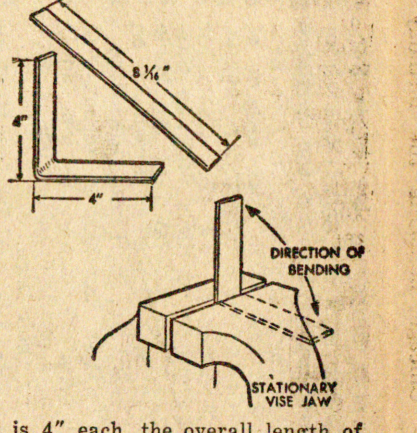

1. Make borings to show the lake when created won't run dry.
2. Sign an agreement to refill the site in event it later goes dry, but not with garbage or tin cans.
3. Leave a perimeter at least 200 feet wide around the lake for possible residential development and beautify the landscape.
4. Provide a gradually sloping grading area by digging only one foot down for every four feet out.

Won't Hurt Wells
Experts say the lakes won't dry up any wells. In fact, they say, the lakes will help the water table situation by holding run-off water and also alleviate flood conditions in heavy rainstorms. Sauer is jubilant about the lakes the forest preserve will gain. Says the superintendent: "We never could do this ourselves. It would be difficult to justify that big expenditure. This way we get the lakes and money besides. "You have no idea how many people in the county just want to go fishing. In the course of a season, about 500,000 people in Chicago and the county fish omplace. Many have only a few hours to do it in, and some take the whole family along. "Our lakes will be ideal for them. They won't have to ride far in heavy traffic. Our lakes won't be more than a 30-minute ride away for anyone in the county."

FIX-UP TIPS For the Home

Making Right-Angle Bend in Bar Stock
THERE'S a trick in bending a metal round or flat bar to right angles, according to Popular Mechanics. It is to allow sufficient length in the piece to be bent. For example, if the length of the two parts after being bent is 4" each, the overall length of the metal before being bent should be 8 1/16", because the bar is 1/16" thick. The rule is to increase the length of a piece by one-half its thickness. For an extremely accurate job, allow a little more than this and then file down the ends. Point of the bend should be marked and the metal placed in the vise so that the mark comes to the edge of the stationary jaw. Always hammer toward the stationary jaw, which can take more strain. To keep the bend sharp, hammer the stock close to the vise jaws.

Doctor Labels Cigaret Filters As Sales Gadgets

by Whitney Carter
Now that the public health service has stepped into the controversy over cigaret smoking and lung cancer with announced plans for a probe of the use and effects of cigaret filters, there is nothing more to do but wait for published facts and results. U. S. Surgeon General Burney announces numerous studies have confirmed there is a high degree of statistical association between lung cancer and heavy cigaret smoking. In addition to the findings, copies of his reports and scientific data has been sent to the American Medical Society and various state health officers. General Burney claims these findings and studies have succeeded in isolating the chemical (benzopyrene) which possibly causes lung cancer. Dr. Alton Ochsner famous lung and re-search specialist of the Charity hospital, New Orleans, says filters on cigarettes do nothing whatever to cut the amount of tar. Filters he said, are only a hoax to fool the smoking public and sell more cigarettes. Other findings also show some types of heart disease are caused by cigarette smoking. Throat cancer in women smokers also show a sizable increase.

Business and Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The first half of 1957 showed a slight dip in industrial production which largely reflected reduced inventory spending as compared to 1956. 1957 has been addisted by large expenditures for extension of plant and equipment, increase in commodity prices or price inflation, and new peaks in consumer spending and government spending.

It is expected that the last quarter of 1957 will show an increase and that 1958 will be a further expansion in industrial activity.

During the first half of 1957, the best performers as to earning, have been in oils, drugs, electrical equipment, and business machines.

The groups whose stocks seem to have the greatest market appeal for the near term future are: Coement, drugs, electrical equipment, electronics, steam generating equipment, natural gas pipe lines, business machinery, crude oil producers and this would include the firms with internal production.

The least attractive are: bread and cake bakers, brewing, heating and plumbing equipment, lead and zinc, meat packing, radio-TV manufactures, rayon and acetate yarn, variety chains (retailers), textile weavers, and vegetable oils.

Between the above groups are many common stocks with varying degrees of attraction. Some investors are seeking situations they feel will give them less appreciation, but more protection against an unexpected down turn in the general business situation. This group would include: banks, biscuit makers, containers (metal and glass), corn refiners, dairy products, finance companies, packaged foods, casualty and fire insurance firms, natural gas distributors, small loan companies, telephone, cigarette manufacturers, and electric utilities.

Standard and poor investment service, the largest of the investment services recently listed seven common stocks which they felt are candidates for a stock split. They are Eastman Kodak-split 5 for 1 in 1947 and with frequent stock dividends since that date; Gulf Oil paid 100 per cent stock dividend in 1936 and again in 1951. Halliburton Oil Well Cementing paid 100 per cent stock dividend in 1953 and split 4 for 1 in 1955; Minneapolis Honeywell-split 2 for 1 in 1955; National Lead-split 3 for 1 in 1951; Shell Oil split 2 for 1 in 1954; and Warner-Lambert

Some of the drug manufacturers have become very active in products with a direct relationship to increasing animal reproduction and weight on the farms. Armour developed a product which will, it is claimed, cause sheep to increase their periods of reproduction, an English firm recently announced a similar product for use with cattle, Chas. Pfizer Co. has a product which will add 60 pounds at a cost of only a fraction of a dollar.

We now see some concern by writers for agricultural journals that the raising of hogs may follow the pattern of chicken broilers in that business has gone to feeding plants that thrive on low profit margin and large volume. The chicken broiler "factories", thru assistance from feed manufacturers, have increased total production about 350 per cent in ten years, but the profit margin is so low that the average farmer cannot compete profitably. It is expected that the south would probably be the center of any hog "factories" established.

4-H'ers to Try for Scholarships

Hard work and determination to make the best better will earn college scholarships worth $400 each for 18 national winners this year in the 4-H poultry, field crops and entomology programs, the Cooperative Extension service announced today. In addition, 48 state champions will receive an all-expense trip to the 1957 national 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago early in December, and county blue award groups will get handsome gold-filled medals of honor.

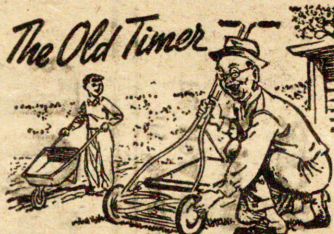

The 4-H boys and girls who enroll in the poultry programs will learn the latest methods in poultry and egg production, and in marketing. Last year 4-H club members handled 9½ million birds, according to the Extension Service. The Sears-Roebuck Foundation will continue to provide all awards.

Incentive awards in the 4-H field crops program will be provided by the Arcadian Products department of Allied Chemical and Dye corporation. More than 800,000 acres were cultivated, planted and harvested by 4-Hers carrying the field crop project last year. Members are encouraged to demonstrate to others what they learn about soil nutrition and fertility, as well as recommended crop production practices for their particular locality.

Introduced to 4-H club only six years ago, the entomology project last year alone helped 28,000 members. Knowing the difference now between an ant and a termite could save many dollars in damage to homes and farm buildings later on, cautions one entomologist. And this is one of the many valuable lessons taught in the 4-H entomology program. The Hercules Powder company is donor of awards.

Arrangements with the awards donors were completed by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Chicago. Details about participation in these national 4-H awards programs and others can be obtained from the state or county Extension Service office.

TRADEMARKS

The trademark is almost as old as trade itself. It was known in Crete, scene of Eupore's most ancient civilization. And thousands of years ago Egyptian law required that every brick be marked so that the brickyard worker and even the individual slave brickmaker could be readily identified and held responsible for the product.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
CHURCHES
Today's need of the spiritual sense of truth will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, July 28.

The Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" will include the following from Psalms (145:18): "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (272: 3-5): "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood This sense is assimilated only as we are honest, unselfish, loving and meek."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (98:1-3): "O sing unto the Lord: for he hath done marvellous things.
He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God."

Carry Cross --Not a Grudge, Says Writer

By ANNE TANSEY,
Writer for INFORMATION
(Paulist Feature Service)
Millions of New Yorkers gave sighs of relief when prison bars closed behind the "Mad Bomber". For the last 16 years this man had been taking out his grudge on society—by setting bombs in libraries, railway stations and other public places—because he claimed he had been wronged.
Criminal records abound with crimes committed because the culprit was fighting mad at someone. But such crimes would be much fewer if the people who are hurt, or treated unjustly, would fashion that hurt into a cross. That is, accept it for God's sake Who sees everything that happens to us, whether it be good or bad. If nobody else ever rights our wrongs for us,

He will—in His own good time
—if we give Him the opportunity.

Countless people have been disappointed in love, have lost job unjustly, have had all manner of misfortune. It is a good thing for society that the majority of them turn these hurts into crosses.

I know a widow who was left with seven children to bring up. She knew the loss of her husband to be a cross, and were it heroically and without complaint. In spite of its burden she found life good in many ways, and because of her blithe spirits had a host of friends.
Now only those who knew her well are aware that great sorrow once entered her life.

The easiest people in the world to get along with, and the most understanding, are those who bear the heaviest crosses—who have learned how to carry them and how to profit from them. They are a pleasure to be with because they enjoy the fruit which blossoms from crosses patiently borne.
Many a person never discovers what potentials he has inside himself until he is afflicted and has to take up his cross.

Crosses are of all kinds, sizes, and degrees. They have just one thing in common—with God's grace they can be borne. Properly worn, they bring a love of life as well as a love of God—knowing that life is the gift of God and that crosses come from Him for our own good.

A grudge is a horrible thing to lug around. The trouble with them is that they grow bigger and bigger with the years they are carried, until finally they get completely out of hand.
Like the "Mad Bomber", people with grudges begin to look for ways to show their hatred for society instead of their love for God.

No matter which way you take it, crosses are preferable to grudges. The person who nurses a grudge is truly blind because he could have the joy of the cross for the same hurt, the same injustice. It takes a cross to turn injuries into treasures of grace. As Jesus said, "Take up your cross daily and"—then —"follow me."

Wisconsin Electric Power Co. uses 1½ million tons of coal every year in the generation of electricity and about 89.5 per cent is delivered by river barge.

Coal output of the five leading commercial companies and the four leading steel firms was more than 131.5 million tons, or more than 26 per cent of the 1956 total of 500 million tons.

Cameraman Finds A Variety of Subjects

FLOOD SALVAGE—Just the roof and a part of one side of the garage remained at the rear of the Leonard McCormick home on North Oak st., New Lenox, after the flood waters subsided. The rest of the structure apparently disintegrated and the pieces floated away. What is left would be of use only to shelter a scooter or sports car. The McCormicks have purchased a home at New Lenox and expect to move into it Aug. 1.

SLICK, SHINED AND SASSY—and ready for a parade is this antique rig owned by the Mokena volunteer fire department. As a hat or clothes can date a person the tires on this truck, not to speak of the type pump displayed, show it to be an early adventure in the automotive art. The rig does draw considerable comment when it is driven in parades and the crew of firemen shown here have been working many hours to give the old gal a party shine. The men in the picture, (l to r) are Mayor James Marti, also president of the fire department; Walter Muehler, Fred Rauch, Jr., Roy Newton, William Hall, Joseph Heim, John Roesner and Kenneth Warning.

WILL CELEBRATE—golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. James Pukis, who reside on Pine street, New Lenox, were wed at Chicago 50 years ago, July 27, 1907, and will celebrate the event this Saturday at an open house to be held at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Mary Pack, North Cooper st., New Lenox. The hours will be from 2 to 5 o'clock. (Marvin Smith photo)

CROSSING CRASH CLAIMS LIFE—Only a heap of battered, broken metal remains of the tractor of a "low-boy" truck struck by a suburban passenger train on the Gougar road crossing of the Rock Island railroad, about one mile west of New Lenox, last Thursday night. Driver of the vehicle, Ford Eastabrook, was instantly killed. He had been in the employ of

Brown and Lambrecht, excavating contractors, of Frankfort, for about two weeks prior to the accident. Eastabrook had turned off U.S. 30 to go north on Gougar road. The train was west bound. The tractor was reported dragged over 100 feet. The spectators shown here are Robert Kell, 20 (left) and Morris Wade, 19, both of New Lenox. (Marvin Smith photo)

ALWAYS ON HAND—These automatic pin-setters that have just been installed at the Frankfort Bowling Lanes and the Davey's Lanes at New Lenox have an advantage over their human counterparts, bowlers and alley owners agree. They are never late and they don't give with any backchat. The alleys at Frankfort and New Lenox have been refurbished in anticipation of the 1957-58 season and—say, it's later than you think—only about six weeks more and the leagues will be tuning up. The picture at the left shows the pin setting apparatus as it appears before the front is installed. Below in a topside view of the gimmicks and gadgets of the machine, showing a number of pins in their nests just before being lowered away. They are fed into the pockets on a conveyor, as shown in the picture.

Here's why Chevy's best showroom is the road!

Because Chevrolet's sleek good looks, its advanced features, are only part of the story. There are reasons for this, of course: Chevrolet's balanced weight distribution that takes excessive loads off the front wheels, the wide stance of outrigger rear springs, Ball-Race steering, spherical-joint front suspension. Sure, you can admire the sculptured lines in the showroom. Girl Scouts at "Boy-jammer" In Michigan

The big event of the year has come and gone for troop 42, Senior Girl Scouts of Mokena.

Members of the troop are Louise Berg, Diana Bost, Sharon Cappel, Barbara Daugherty, Penney Flegan, Carole Egness, Vivian Jacobson, and Wilma Maue.

These girls worked all last fall and spring earning money for a trip to Menominee, Mich., where the Explorer Boy Scouts had invited them and 300 other girls to attend their three-day Boy-Jammer.

The troop left Mokena Thursday afternoon, July 18 arriving in Menominee late that night. Friday was a day for exploring Menominee and meeting more Mariner Scouts. Friday night was stunt night and the girls thrilled to the presence of Pat Boone and Elvis Presley (pantomimed, of course!).

Saturday was the day of contests. Diana, Sharon, and Vivian were entered in the pulling boat contest where they had to row a circular course. Troop 42 cheered these kids into second place in the preliminaries.

Wilma and Carole were entered in the canoe tilting contest. One girl paddles the canoe while the other girl stands on the sides of the canoe, careful to keep her balance while at the same time holding on to a 10 foot pole with a big rubber ball attached to the end. The girls with the poles jab at each other in an attempt to knock the opponent off the canoe. Wilma and Carole won in the preliminaries to compete in the finals Sunday.

Barbara and Louise were entered in the canoe race and had to paddle a straight course and back to win. They tied twice with another team and were entered in the finals.

Some of the girls went on yacht rides Saturday and later swam in the 64-degree water.

The highlight of the Boy-Jammer was the banquet and formal ball Saturday night. For this all the girls donned formals and stepped out to an evening of enjoyment and dancing.

They attended church services Sunday morning at 8 a.m. and then prepared with some excitement for the finals in the water sports contests.

Wilma and Carole went out with a feeling of victory with Carole maneuvering the canoe and Wilma handling the 10-foot pole. They tested each opponent until they met the final team. This was a bitter battle with the onlookers cheering enthusiastically for our team as Wilma was so much smaller than her opponent. Ten minutes passed and tension mounted until Wilma's foot slipped and she stepped down in the canoe. That ended the contest with Carole and Wilma placing second in the event.

Later Barbara and Louise came up to face their opponents. They, too, lost out, coming in second. Troop 42 felt gay and happy they had done so well and are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Clare Berg for the use of their pond at Marley where the girls have had opportunities to develop skill in water sports.

Miss Gertrude Engelhardt of Clearwater, Fla., and Miss Eleanor Robison of Ashland, Oregon, accompanied the girls as chaperones.

Frankfort Pastor Elected Secretary of Ministers' Group

The Rev. Ben F. Day, pastor of the Frankfort Methodist church was elected recording secretary of the Will County Ministers' Association at its meeting held recently in Joliet.

The Rev. William B. Hill, First Baptist church, is president, the Rev. Ivan Estle, Judson Memorial Baptist church, is president; the Rev. Roger Simpson, First Presbyterian church, corresponding secretary; and the Rev. Elwyn Goodsell, Theodore Street Lutheran church, treasurer.

Clear Area After Flood; Heavy Damage

While the area returns to normal following the big storm of July 12, and many families have returned to homes which have been pumped of water, drifting in on the flood tide come stories of evacuated families, the difficult circumstances under which business was conducted and the magnificent job done by volunteers during the flood.

One such delayed account is the flooding of the Edward Unseld home at 241 E. Oak, New Lenox. Water poured thru windows of the four room house to a depth of 6 to 7 feet, inundating furniture and appliances.

Good Freeze!

Strangely enough, the electric power remained in operation at the Unseld home thruout the flood, water seeped into a freezer and became solid blocks of ice.

The Unseld's left their home when it became flooded and sought shelter at the home of Mrs. Anne Richter. At 3 a.m. it was necessary to evacuate all of them by boat from the Richter home.

The Unseld's moved back into their home last Tuesday after New Lenox firemen had pumped out the water and used a hose to clean out the mud and debris.

The foundation on the west side of the house was completely washed out.

Tough on Photographers

Robert Porter, of Frankfort, despite flooded conditions in his basement, was successful in developing a series of flood pictures which appeared in last week's issue of the Semmler newspapers.

Marvin Smith, staff photographer, who was away on vacation when the storm hit, found similar flooded conditions when he returned. Under difficult circumstances, he managed to take some pictures of the flooded areas and develop them in time for publication.

The severe flooding in the area has prompted local authorities to contact state and federal officials for help in providing flood control measures to relieve the condition.

Mokena Lions Halt Paper Drive

There will not be a paper collection in Mokena by the Lions club this month and probably not for some months to come, it was announced today by Ray Westlund, who has been directing the Lions paper drive. The reason for cessation of this activity is lack of a market, Mr. Westlund explained.

For several years the Mokena Lions have earned money to pay the library rent and meet other obligations thru the collection and sale of paper and other scrap.

The Lions have been disposing of the paper thru Jahnecke Brothers Paper and Trucking Co., Joliet. This week they received notice that all facilities in Joliet used to store waste paper were filled and that until stocks on hand could be disposed of, Jahnecke's weren't buying.

The Lions club has no place to store paper in Mokena so the only thing the men can do is to halt collections until such time as the market opens again. That might be next month or it could be several months, it was pointed out.

The only thing sure about scrap paper now is that it isn't worth a scrap of paper.

Frankfort Lions Elect Officers

New officers recently elected by the Frankfort Lions club are H. G. Osmus, president; William Wilson, 1st vice president; Dr. Carl Marienfeld, 2nd vice president; Dr. Joseph P. Petnuch, 3rd vice president; George Tate secretary; F. T. Novak, treasurer; T. J. Baker, tail twister,

5-Month-Old Girl Recovering After Rare Operation

Sharon Lynn, five month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spiess, of Mokena, has spent eight weeks in hospitals since she was born in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, Feb. 26.

An exploratory operation to correct an opening in the patet ductus which leads from the pulmonary artery to the aorta, was performed in the Illinois Research hospital in Chicago, when she weighed only 7½ pounds. The operation took three hours.

The baby is making satisfactory progress and has been declared out of danger.

She is under the care of Dr. Carl J. Marienfeld, of Frankfort. The operation was performed by chief surgeon of the Illinois Research hospital, Dr. Julian.

Hold Rites For Crash Victim

Funeral services were held Monday at the Sonntag chapel in Joliet for 51-year-old Ford Eastabrook, Homer township, victim of a grade crossing crash in New Lenox township last Thursday evening.

He was employed as a truck driver by the Brown and Lambrecht excavating firm of Frankfort and at the time of the accident was piloting what is known as a "low-boy," a low slung vehicle used to carry machinery or other extra heavy items. It was empty at the time.

Eastabrook had turned north onto Gougar road from off U.S. 30 and reached the Rock Island crossing at the same time as a westbound suburban passenger train.

The tractor and cab of the truck was literally torn to bits and Eastabrook was believed to have been instantly killed. The locomotive, a diesel unit, was disabled and the train remained at the scene about an hour before another engine arrived to pull it into Joliet. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock.

Mr. Eastabrook is survived by his wife, the former Alice LeVan, his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Eastabrook, and two sisters, Mrs. Marietta Heiden, Joliet, Mrs. William Roberts, Homertownship and two brothers, Judd, of Mars, Pa., and Julian, Washington, Ill.

MOKENA BOARD—

householders to get the applications returned as soon as possible.

"A sanitary sewer will never be cheaper", the mayor's letter reads in part, "not only because we have a federal grant of over one-fifth the cost, but also because basic costs of all construction are continuing to rise as witnessed by the latest increase in the price of steel. It (the sewer and sewage disposal plant) will be installed now, on a pay-as-we-use basis-- NOT on a special assessment basis that would require a large immediate investment on the part of each owner, an investment that many of us could not readily make."

"Your signed application is needed now--please return it as soon as possible."

Persons who have any questions relative to the sewer are asked to call Alvin Sorensen, village clerk at 2711 and he will make arrangements for a representative of the board to get in touch with them.

At the meeting of the Mokena Lions club to be held next Thursday night, Aug. 1, at the Lincolnwood Drive-In, Robert Hamilton, engineer for the village who has drawn the plans and specifications for the sewer system, will be the speaker. He will discuss various phases of sanitation, sewage systems, water and kindred subjects with special attention paid to the Mokena project. He will endeavor to answer all the questions that may be raised at that meeting.

Mokena Visitors In Crash Enroute Home on Coast

Returning to their home in LaVerne, Calif., after visiting relatives in Mokena, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gardner, and their daughter Joan, 11, and Mrs. Gardner's sister, Miss Gladys Swanberg, of Mokena, were hospitalized overnight in Gallup, N. M., following a car accident.

Their car was forced off the road in Gallup and rolled over twice. The accident happened when a motorist passed another car on a curve, forcing the Gardner automobile and the one ahead of it to leave the highway.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Gardner who has two broken vertebrae and will be in a cast for six months.

Joan and Miss Swanberg were thrown clear of the car and they and Mr. Gardner suffered severe bruises and minor cuts. They were badly shaken up by the accident.

The cast was applied to Mrs. Gardner in a hospital at Pamoona, Calif., where she is employed in surgery.

The Gardner automobile was completely wrecked. They stayed in Gallup for two days, bought a new car and continued home.

The car responsible for the accident, bearing Indiana license plates, eluded a road block set up by police. The group left Mokena, July 5.

Severs Tendons In Fall Thru Glass Door at His Home

Alan Wallenzien, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wallenzien, LaPorte road, Mokena, severed four tendons in the right forearm when he tripped and fell thru the glass in a side door of his home last Thursday.

He was taken to Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, where surgery was necessary to repair the damage to the arm.

He is now at home and fortunately may recover the use of the arm. He is able now to move the fingers.

SAYS PROPOSED RATES—

other operating expenses make it necessary for us to have more made possible by operating revenue in spite of the savings economies and generally increased efficiency.

"This year we are spending a record $190,000,000 on new construction and our expansion program for the four years 1957 through 1960, aggregates $650,000,000. This is on top of more than one billion dollars we spent on new construction in the preceding 11 years."

"As Commonwealth Edison must sell approximately $280-million of additional new securities to help finance the current four-year program, it is vital that our credit be maintained at top grade level."

The total monthly increases provided under the new rate schedules for the principal classes of customers are as follows: residential $694,000, or an average of 7.1 per cent; small commercial and industrial $558,000, or 6.4 per cent; large commercial and moderate-size industrial $190,000, or 7.8 per cent; largest commercial and industrial $523,000, or 9.6 per cent.
